Nature Notes

June. 19th. Earlier in the summer a chaffinch had a nest in a clematis growing on the wall of our bungalow but it was ransacked by magpies. Recently a greenfinch has been feeding her young ones there but today a cat has managed to climb up and drag out the nest along with some of the clematis.

June. 26th. The collard dove population seems to be lower than for some years. Being a bird that only spread to this country from the south east about 30 years ago they may not all be hardy enough to survive a cold spell such as the one we had last winter but I expect that survival of the fittest will be soon breed a hardier British strain.

June. 27th. Our thermometer only struggled to 49°F today and with a fresh wind from the north (though it would be quite good for January) it feels very cold for midsummer but the cold spell is due to end soon.

June. 30th. We heard our first quail of the summer today. Not quite within parish bounds but only a few yards outside.

July 5th. This morning we stopped at a good roadside wild flower site and were lucky enough to find 2 bee orchids in bloom as well as a good selection of other wild flowers. There is still a colony of marbled white butterflies there are also some common blues, small skippers and the usual huge number of burnet moths mostly hatched leaving their empty cocoons hanging from the grass stalks.

July 7th. Early yesterday morning I rushed out to drive away the magpies that were near a flycatchers nest. I saw that the eggs were still there and later in the morning I was pleased to see that she was back on the nest but today it is empty. Birds nesting in our garden have had a hard time over the last few years. They have just too many enemies.

July 8th. We walked along Grange Lane expecting to see a good show of scabious and knapweed, that grow there as abundantly as anywhere in the parish, but we were disappointed as the roadside had been trimmed right back to the hedge where one or two plants had escaped the massacre. There will probably be a second crop of flowers in the autumn unless they also get the chop.

July 12th. There is an interesting piece in today's paper about a blackbirds nest on the chassis of a four wheel drive vehicle. As soon as the vehicle was parked after a journey a blackbird started going back and forth, feeding youngsters which were almost ready to fly yet they had stayed in the nest each time the vehicle was driven and I suppose the parent must have sat on the eggs to incubate them during the journeys. We once had a nest on top of the engine of a little used tractor and on the few occasions when we had to use it the blackbird would stay on her nest while it was driven right out of the shed. At least with the nest in that position there was no chance of the eggs getting cold.

July 13th. There is a fine group of giant puff-balls near the Woodway Road. The best one is 15 inches in diameter.

July 14th. It is nice to see that the greater spotted woodpeckers have reared a brood and from their calls I think that the green woodpeckers may also have some young ones in the valley.

July 15th. Wasps will nest almost anywhere. Today I was shown a nest built in a pile of blankets. We are not seeing many dragonflies although we are finding a lot of empty nymph cases. We have also found a good many wings including one this morning that was not quite fully expanded which makes me think that they are being taken by birds during those dangerous hours while they are hatching and expanding their wings prior to flying.

THE OXFORDSHIRE HISTORIC CHURCHES BICYCLE RIDE

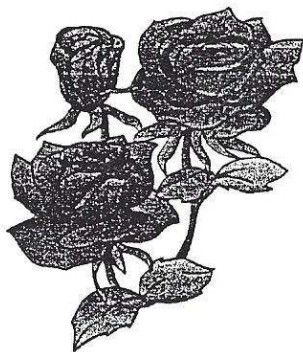

Saturday September 13th is the day to take to your bikes (or to your feet) in a good cause - the sponsored Bicycle Ride to raise money for the Oxfordshire Historic Churches Trust. If you fancy a fun day out, signing in at as many churches and chapels as you can manage between 10am and 6pm, you could be clocking up a tidy sum both for your church and for the Trust, which exists to help preserve the ecclesiastical heritage of Oxfordshire of all denominations.

The money you raise will be split 50/50 between the church of your choice and the county Trust. Last year the Trust was able to assist individual churches with their repairs to the tune of £63,000.

Call Petra Berry (780462) or Arnold Lamb (780357) for details and/or sponsorship forms.

LETTER to the EDITOR

Dear Sir

This year two excellent fetes have been put on in our villages within seven days of each other. Some villagers (not me this year) collected for both and/or helped at both.

Surely it makes common sense to combine such events and have one BIG fete and split the takings - other villages do it!

Yours

Jane Holliday

A PLEA to ALL OUR CONTRIBUTORS

At this time of the year, Adrian is busier than usual on the farm, probably engaged in such time-honoured country tasks as separating his wheat from his chaff, his sheep from his goats or his neeps from his tatties.

Consequently, the spare time available for him to type up and assemble the next edition of SIBFORD SCENE EXTRA in August will be strictly limited and spasmodic.

Therefore, contributors are kindly requested to make his task a little easier by delivering their items AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE in AUGUST, preferably a week or more ahead of the deadline.

Thank you for your consideration.

1st The Sibfords Scout Group

An American theme prevailed at the AGM on July 4th. Softball, apple bobbing and square dancing formed part of the entertainment before and after the business of the evening. The Group presented official Thanks Badges to retiring executive officers, Chairman Roland Dean, and Secretary Diane Henderson, and to Carol Dean for all their help and support over the years. Martyn Layer was appointed the new Group Chairman.

The District Commissioner presented the Cub Scout Challenge to Jamie Smith, the Cub Scout Adventure Crest to Edward Bovil and a Long Service Award to Akela - Erica Wimbush. These were followed by the presentation of The Chief Scout's Award, the highest obtainable in the Scout section, to Tom Groome. Finally the Ernest Jones Winter Trophy was won by Jamie Smith.

Phillip Hall and Jamie Smith were later invested as Scouts.

By the time this goes to press, more than 60 members of the Group will have joined members of the Scout movement from all over Oxfordshire at a County camp at Cornbury.

NEWSPAPER COLLECTION

The waste paper re-cycling people who have been taking our newspaper collection for more than 10 years recently announced without warning, that they are no longer prepared to provide a skip in the village because there is "now no money in re-cycled waste paper". For some months we have only received payment from Cherwell District Council. After consultation with CDC, it was agreed that the skip would be provided for the July collection.

A CDC committee meeting will be held at the end of July in an effort to resolve the problem. However it has been suggested that any CDC funds available will go to the re-cyclers to provide the skip, rather than to ourselves for the actual collection. If this is the case, and since we provide the service mainly as a fund raising exercise, we will have to switch our efforts into other forms of fund raising and shall stop the monthly newspaper collection.

Whatever the outcome of the meeting THERE WILL BE NO NEWSPAPER COLLECTION ON THE FIRST SATURDAY OF AUGUST

FRIENDSHIP CLUB

We were very sorry to hear of the death of Mrs Amy Poulton who had been a member for many years, also Mrs Mabel Dunkley, and our sympathies go out to both families. On a happier note we are pleased to hear that Mrs Bea Tanner is progressing quite satisfactorily, and are looking forward to seeing her more able to join in the club's activities.

If cruising down the river on a sunny afternoon appeals to you then you should have joined us in June when we went to Evesham and spent a lovely peaceful afternoon on the river and a cream tea to follow. Most enjoyable !

We have a short break in our normal meetings in August; our next regular meeting will be in September, probably Tuesday the 2nd in the Village Hall.

However, there will be a joint coach outing with W.I. members on Tuesday 12 August, visiting Burford House Gardens near Tenbury Wells. Please bring a picnic lunch. For further details please contact Mrs Boughton (263460). B. H.

WI NEWS & INFORMATION

Our annual Garden Party meeting is always something 'special', and this year's was certainly no exception.

Straw hats and even a parasol were much in evidence as we gathered in the secretary's spacious garden at Grimes Close, Shenington. Names were taken for both County and local activities, including cake-makers and helpers for the Village Hall Shindig.

Business was brief, followed by Brain-Teasers which taxed our mental powers to the limit.

We were refreshed with tea and tempting "eats", and were indebted to our hostess for a very pleasant and convivial afternoon. THANK YOU Lynda.

Next month we look forward to combining our outing, on Tuesday 12 August, with the Friendship Club, visiting Burford House Gardens near Tenbury Wells. The coach will call in at the Village Hall at 10am. Please bring your picnic lunch.

SIBFORD FERRIS PARISH COUNCIL

The Parish Council met on Monday 23 June and discussed a number of issues including some sensitive planning applications. We also discussed the district conservation strategy, so important for protecting our rural environment.

I have a number of copies of a discussion paper from the District Council entitled "Helping To Shape The Future - Rural Issues. This includes a questionnaire for people to comment on housing, how much and what type should be built; jobs; protecting the countryside and so on. These issues are a major influence on the quality of life for people who live here and it is important that we let our views be known. If you would like a copy of the booklet and a questionnaire please phone me, or come along to the next meeting of the PC which is on August 4th.

We have also been approached by the County Youth Orchestra about financial support for people who wish to send their children but are concerned about the cost. Let me know if your child is of the required standard.

It is now an offence (Dogs Fouling of Land Act 1996) if dog owners do not clear up any mess in any open air area where the public have access including footpaths etc.

DON'T SUFFER IN SILENCE

Domestic violence is any physical, emotional or sexual abuse between people who are, or have been in a close relationship. It can happen to anyone, whatever their age. It can take the form of threats and intimidation, mental or verbal criticism, and it can result in feelings of guilt, low self-esteem, depression and stress. Outsiders may not realise what is happening, but help is available, just a phone call away.

If you need help straight away dial 999.

If you are not in immediate danger but want to talk to someone in confidence try one of the agencies listed below, or phone the Police and ask for the Area Domestic Violence co-ordinator on Oxford (01865) 266404, Abingdon (01235) 776000 or Witney (01993) 703913.

If you are reluctant to contact the Police, there are other agencies to whom you can speak confidentially, some of which are:-

- Oxford Women's Aid - Oxford (01865) 791186

They can offer a safe place to stay, and information, advice and support to women and their children.

- Victim Support - Oxford (01865) 711186 or Abingdon (01235) 811186

They have a team of volunteers who visit people at home or in a neutral place, and offer emotional support and practical help.

- Housing Rights Centre - Oxford (01865) 247853

They offer free advice on housing issues.

- Citizens Advice Bureau - Oxford (01865) 247578

They offer free information on benefits, women's rights, divorce and custody of children, and a range of other information. They can also advise you on how to contact a solicitor and whether you will be eligible for Legal Aid.

- Oxford Sexual Abuse and Rape Crisis Centre - Oxford (01865) 726275

They offer free confidential support to women of all ages who have suffered any physical, emotional or sexual abuse recently or in the past.

- Samaritans - Oxford (01865) 722122 or Banbury (01295) 270000

They offer confidential counselling on any problems.

AN APPEAL for a LITTLE of your TIME

This is an APPEAL - not for the usual money or gifts but for your TIME - something everyone has but very little is 'spare'.

An Appeal, not because I'm Secretary of the Village Hall Committee but from an ordinary villager who is still a comparative 'newcomer' and believes if you are lucky enough to live in such surroundings, you should give something back to your village.

We have a great Village Hall, surrounded by a large field, play area, lovely front lawn and large car park - which many villages I visit would really appreciate, some having no parking facility at all (a real problem) - but we do not use it anything like as much as we should. Folk Dancing, Amateur Dramatics, Youth Club, Badminton all having 'disappeared' over the last few years. I understand Brownies keep going mainly thanks to leaders who travel from Twyford and Banbury.

At the current events it is the same people assisting, time and time again. We have a very good Hall Manager, who is also now taking over the Chairmanship of the Village Hall Committee, David Baker, who is always ready to help. AND there are a regular band of volunteers who do a lot on a regular basis for the village - they are continually asked to help even more. I know most of those feel it would be nice to have some new help, possibly with a lot more ideas.

At the Village Hall AGM's which I have been associated with, only a couple of the public have visited, and this year no-one attended other than the Committee members and representatives of the various Organisations using the Hall, and everyone is welcome. We have struggled to fill the various positions on the Committee and one member resigned with a comment I overheard that there were too many older people on the Committee! Yes, we do need some younger members who would be gladly welcomed, with hopefully some new ideas for fund raising but the same people stay because there is no-one to come forward.

Surely we want to keep our Village Hall, and keep it in a good condition - this takes a little time, effort and fund raising. This year the Committee were trying to cut costs by doing all the ground maintenance ourselves - but again it is left mainly to one person - I am determined to try and do more - PLEASE can you come and help?.

We have a lot of newcomers in the area - presumably you came because you liked the look and feel of the village - just a "little" of your time and ideas would assist. To be on the Committee means only five meetings a year (one includes the AGM), usually about 1½ hours per meeting.

Could I please ask everyone to give us an idea of what "you" would like to have and see at "your" Village Hall. Either telephone me, Muriel Chandler, on 01295 780025, or a letter via the "Sibford Scene", but I hope shortly to arrange for everyone to receive a Questionnaire and I hope everyone will take a few minutes to complete this. LET'S USE THIS GREAT FACILITY WE HAVE TO IT'S BEST ADVANTAGE.

HOLY TRINITY CHURCH NEWS

The Parochial Church Council meeting on 8th July had a very full agenda to consider. Among the matters for attention were recommendations from Bishop Anthony on The Church and the Wider Community, reports on recent meetings of the various committees of the Wykeham Benefice Council and of the Deddington Deanery Synod. Charitable giving by the Council was reviewed and a detailed report on a meeting with the architect following his Quinquennial Report was discussed also the position of the necessary extension to the burial ground.

Barry Davies has retired as the Sibford Gower and Burdrop "Welcome to Sibford" organiser and his place has been taken by Mrs Maureen Warden. Mrs Mary Mills continues as the Sibford Ferris organiser.

The monthly Benefice service on the first Sunday in July was held in Sibford and was conducted by young people from the various parishes in a "Young at Heart" form. A very large congregation attended and the church was more full than it has been for some years. It was particularly good to see so many young people present and their parents.

The Annual Church Garden Party was held at The Red House, Burdrop on Saturday 12th July. The theme this year was "Paper" and a large paper tree, magnificently made by Ian Warden advertised the need to conserve and the use of recycling paper. There were the usual number of highly successful stalls and some more unusual games and competitions. The children were kept busy searching for names of newspapers planted round the wood and reaping rewards of many jelly babies. The gross takings for the afternoon amounted to £856 and the Council is very grateful not only to its dedicated band of helpers but to the entire community for its generous support on a beautiful afternoon and for so many gifts. Thanks also to Mary & Norman Nash for the use of their garden.
