Nature Notes

March 23rd I watched a female blackcap struggling to swallow ivy berries. They must be very fond of them to go to so much trouble. I have seen several blackcaps recently but none as yet singing which to me is a sign that they are not ones that will nest here. It was in the 1970s that a few blackcaps were recorded in this area during the winter months. The first one that I saw was a male feeding on chopped apples on a bird table in Adderbury. Since then the numbers have increased so much that it may not be long before there are as many wintering here and nesting further north as come from the south to nest here.

March 30th This morning a fox was feeding from a dead badger which has been lying on the roadside opposite the site of the Pig and Whistle for more than a week. As we approached in the car it was tugging at the carcase as if to drag it away into the hedge but when we got closer it became nervous and reluctantly left it to slip away into the hedge.

April 2nd A blackcap was singing in the garden this morning. We usually have one that sings and presumably nests in this area although I have never seen any young ones.

April 3rd I am told that swallows were seen at Burdrop a few days ago. They seem to come a bit earlier each year.

April 4th Holly blue and orange tip butterflies were scarce iast year so I was particularly pleased to see a holly blue in our garden yesterday and an orange tip in the Quaker graveyard today.

April 8th A friend from Shipston had a female blackcap hit one of her windows.

April 17th A goldfinch was sitting on our doorstep this afternoon. It must have flown into our glass front door as it was so dazed that it let my brother step over it without moving but 15 mins later when I opened the door it flew away looking quite lively.

April 18th Another window casualty. This time a dead great tit which had flown into the glass of our porch. I heard a cuckoo when I was working near Moreton-in-Marsh this morning but was told this evening that one was heard in Sibford yesterday.

Sibford Horticultural Society

The talk on Organic Gardening by Carol Ungood-Thomas was well received by the small group of members who came to listen. She spoke about the work of the Henry Doubleday Research Association who promote organic production methods as well as carrying out many crop trials.

The next meeting is on May 8th in the Village Hall at 8 pm when Tony Clear will talk on Container and Patio Planting and Plants. A very topical subject, so we hope to see a good turn out.

June 15th Coffee morning, open garden and plant sale at Gower Close in aid of Society funds.

July 24th Outing to Radway Gardens. Meet at Radway Village Hall at 7 pm.

The Sibfords Society

April provided 2 opportunities to hear interesting speakers. Graham Clifton talked about the recent restoration of Church Bells locally and Brian Little talked about Banbury's place as an Old Market Town or a Shopper's Paradise - both very different but wide ranging topics.

Our next meeting at 7.30 pm at the Village Hall is on Thursday 16 May when Tim Porter will present, King Alfred - Fact or Fantasy? Do come along and join us - new or non-members are always welcome.

APPEAL - Neither Ian Warden, 788252, or Maureen Hicks, 780259, have been kept very busy with offers of memorabilia for our Royal Jubilee Exhibition. We have received a few fascinating exhibits but we are sure there is a wealth of material on your bookshelves, in china cupboards or in your attics! Please look out anything which celebrates any Royal occasion up until the present day. We do need YOUR help. We can copy printed items but please label all material carefully so that we can keep an inventory for safe return.

Following our appeal for an epidiascope, some 'sightings' of this rare species have been reported so we hope to track one down for the Society's use - thank you for your co-operation.

A VERY PLEASANT EVENING OUT

Quite recently my husband and I, plus two friends, went to the Village Hall for the production of "Rural Voices of Kala Sangam". We went along, having no idea what to expect, but were enchanted by the music, dancing and story telling, which was all so different from anything we had experienced before. They are a South Asian Arts organisation who perform to audiences in the most remote parts of England.

I can only say how privileged we were to be given the opportunity to watch them perform such a rich and colourful show.

LEO NEWS

It was a full house at Mary Bristow's, where the April meeting was held. The first part of the evening was spent in planning the next LEO events. This was followed by the showing of a very funny old video brought along by Greta, which starred Freddy Frinton. The older members of the group remembered him with pleasure.

The next LEO evening will be on May 21st, when there will be a trip to the restaurant at the Bygones Museum, Claydon. A special menu has been planned for this occasion and it is hoped a good number will attend.

The Simon Weatherby Garden

by Caroline Weatherby

The Simon Weatherby Garden at the Katharine House Hospice, was officially opened by Richard Baker in July 1992, one year after the hospice itself was opened by Princess Diana. But the story of the garden began many years before. The inspiration for it was my husband Simon, who died in 1983 age 43, after a ten year struggle with kidney disease.

I, with family and friends wanted to do something in his memory - but what? The first thing I looked into was something to help bring alternative medicine together with mainstream medicine in some way.

Simon had so much benefit from a Naturopathic doctor and an acupuncturist. Their help with things like high blood pressure, and the distressing side effects of large doses of steroids, had made all the difference to his life.

These and many other things made me feel almost crusaderlike about wanting this to happen. But it was too ambitious a project, and did not take off.

So I was feeling a bit disheartened, when, sitting with a friend gazing out across the garden Simon had created, he suddenly turned to me and said

"what about a garden?" It was one of those moments when everything fits into place, and my reaction was oh of course! Simon was a passionate gardener and creating a garden in his name was an obvious choice, why hadn't I thought of it before? Furthermore, I knew where it should be!

I got straight up and went to my desk, where a recently arrived brochure was lying. It was about the planned Katharine House Hospice at Ad-derbury. I immediately picked up the phone and dialled the number on the Brochure. Neil Gadsby answered, and after a few preliminaries I said, do you want to have a garden at the hospice? Yes he said, definitely. Well can I come and talk to you about it, as I think we would like to provide one, if you like the idea. He sounded keen, the cost of the building was going to be terrific, and this would be one thing less to think about.

We arranged to meet and over Sunday lunch the details were thrashed out, and Neil and his wife Heather and I talked and talked. We talked about Katharine and how they longed to provide the help for other people, which had not been there for them when she had cancer, her musicianship, her innate wisdom and interest in healing, and her enormous joy of life. I spoke of Simon, who shared many of these things, and who had immense faith and patience, intelligence, and a wit which never failed him, even in the worst moments.

The hospice design was perfect for creating a garden which comes right up to it and surrounds it, so that patients can look out onto it and the green fields beyond. I felt Simon had almost chosen the spot.

At last the hospice was built, and after all the planning and fund raising, the garden could begin. To our great good fortune we had found Chelsea gold medallist Jane Fearnley Whittingsall to design it for us, and she and the team which did the work, fulfilled all our expectations. They started with a building site, and let me tell you what they ended with.

There is a summer house, a water garden flowing into a pond, and a winding path through flowering shrubs, roses and herbaceous plants, which leads to a quiet secluded octagonal garden at the top. This was a later addition, and was designed by Patrick Braddell, the treasurer and manager of the garden. It is surrounded by a tall hedge with a fountain in the middle, and provides a place of seclusion and peace. The garden is always being added to and modified by the team of wonderful people who come each week to tend it, but basically it is the same as when it was first planted, only taller and fuller of course.

Why don't you come and visit it on June 9th this year, its tenth anniversary? Come and enjoy its peace and beauty. You will receive a warm welcome, a delicious tea and many other things!

Village Hall News

The next Collectables and Car Boot sale is on Sunday 5th May 11.30 am - 2.30 pm and then on Sunday 2nd June. Our grateful thanks to local people who again have donated items for sale for Village Hall funds.

The Village Lottery Game has started its 2nd year. The first draw was made on the 7th April when 40 people had joined. First prize of £12 went to Mrs. Sheila Baseby; £6 to Mr. Don Woolgrove and £4 to Mrs. Glennis Hardman. Another 6 have joined in for May. A good source of fund raising for the Hall with half the total going back in prize money. To join please ring 01295 780025 or 780373.

We are having the Annual Village Fayre on Saturday June 1st as part of the Jubilee celebrations with most of the usual attractions although some will be at the Hall and hopefully some at the Primary School and possibly in between, if we are able to close a small section of the road off. Childrens Fancy Dress, Sibford Top Dog Championship, a display by the Sibford Brownies, Teas in the Hall, BBQ, Games, Penny Arcade, Stalls, Painting competition and a Musical Roadshow for the children featuring "Mr Mayhem" are a few of the attractions. A programme will soon be on sale.

We have now received the programme for the Touring Entertainment Scheme in partnership with Cherwell District Council. As both Childrens performances in the last programme were not so well supported, particularly the last one when there were more people from outside the village attending, we have just one childrens entertainment this year and a musical evening and a comedy performance. We hope to self promote The Heart of England Jazz Band, which is very popular and possibly one theatre evening by Oxfordshire Touring Theatre Company. Comments from local residents about past or future entertainments would be greatly appreciated. Do you want such events in our Village Hall by professionals at very competitive ticket prices? Please ring 780025 and let us know what you would like to see.

The Hall Extension seems to be on schedule and we are planning an official opening on Saturday 14th September with an afternoon kids party and an adults evening do. Please note the date in your diary.

"SOCK IT TO ME" BBC TOMORROW'S WORLD PRESENTER ASKS LOCAL KIDS

Do readers of Sibford Scene have as many problems as I do finding matching socks in the morning? I usually fall back on wearing yellow on the left and pink on the right, but maybe help is at hand! How about designing a special pair of your own which you can't miss?

I'd like to tell everyone in your area about a brilliant competition for children between 3-18 years old which allows them to do just this. Design a Sock for Starlight is a project which asks kids to draw, paint or even create a collage of a sock they would like to wear - a really fun means of encouraging children to be inventive. A winning entry from each of four age categories will then be manufactured by Sock Shop and 50p will go to charity Starlight Children's Foundation for each pair sold.

Aside from being able to march into a shop, point to your socks and say 'I designed that!', each winner gets £100 worth of art and design materials and a further £500 cash for their school.

Starlight is also asking for a donation of £1 per entry to help it grant the wishes of seriously and terminally ill children such as one little girl who wrote to them recently asking: "Dear Starlight, please can you arrange for three stars to be named after me, my brother and my sister so that they can still speak to me in heaven". Starlight got in touch with the International Star Registry and her wish was granted.

Call 020 7430 1642, email socks@starlight.org.uk or pop into your nearest Sock Shop for an entry form, or if like me you're just the wrong side of 18 years, you can still make a donation by sending a cheque to Starlight Children's Foundation, 11-15 Emerald Street, London, WC1N 3QL. A schools pack is available for teachers - an ideal way to relieve exam stress during the summer term.

Entries have to be in by 31 July.

I hope some clever kids will soon put me out of my sock misery!

Yours sincerely

(I have one copy of the entry form with the template for your design which can be photocopied if anyone would like to enter Ed.)

Quiet Garden Days at Handywater Farm, Sibford Gower

Two new dates have been set for quiet retreat days at Handywater:

Monday 13th May

Tuesday 18th June

You are invited to arrive from 9.30am. There will be a short introduction and prayers in the sitting room at 10am if you care to attend that, but as usual people are welcome to come and go as they find convenient during the day, and everybody is welcome.

A contribution to the lunch table is much appreciated (actually we eat rather well!), and prayers will be said in the sitting room at some point during the afternoon to bring the day to a close.

We enjoyed glorious weather at our last Quiet Day on April 3rd, and were glad as usual to welcome new participants: they always express such astonishment and enthusiasm at how refreshing they find this opportunity to take time out to rest and reflect. It is a simple and very effective way of reducing stress and restoring balance in one's life.

If you would like any further information about the Quiet Days, do ring Sue on 788770.

Oxfordshire Advisory Committee on Appointment of Justices of the Peace

Are you a good listener?

Can you see both sides of an argument?

Do you like a good discussion?

Do you like to see fair play?

Then you could dispense justice in your community!

Why not be a magistrate?

Magistrates try to reflect the community they live in. That means we need a mix of people from all walks of life and ethnic groups, with different backgrounds and skills.

The role is a fascinating one. It opens up many new avenues of interest and gives an insight into how we live and behave in the 21st century. Most of all you will be using your skills as a service to your community - 'justice to the people by the people'.

Few of us have any legal background, and training is provided and continuous. All you need is good character, common sense and the personal skills listed above.

A typical day in court might include motoring offences, theft, supply of drugs, affray, assault, drink-driving and burglary. Sentences for these offences vary from conditional discharge or a fine to 6 months in prison. Try arranging them in order of seriousness!

Interested? Contact your local Magistrates Court or Advisory Committee for an information pack and details on how to apply:

Do it today!

Playgroup is very busy at the moment with an average of twenty children per session; we welcome many faces old and new to the summer term. This term the children will be playing and thinking around the topic of 'Our World' looking at countries, animals, lifestyles and after half term enjoying summer fun with music, games, food and mini beasts. All that and the daily excitement of diggers, lorries and concrete mixers should keep us all busy for a while. For more information about Playgroup please contact Michelle 780813 or Julie 788594
