

Restorative Talks with Why me?

Transforming lives through Restorative Justice

Charity number: 1137123

Wednesday 21st September

6:15pm - 8:30pm

Join Why me? for our exclusive 'Restorative Talks' event at Sibford Village Hall

Our exciting first-time event will introduce the benefits of Restorative Justice for all those harmed by crime and conflict, with all proceeds going to Why me?

Complimentary refreshments included

Hosted by Revd. Neil Bowler (Rector Wykeham Benefice), welcoming our key speakers and chairing a panel discussion about the life-changing benefits of Restorative Justice

Gillian Slovo, Why me?'s Chair of Trustees, talks Restorative Justice and the work of Why me?, with a chance to purchase signed copies of her best-selling novels

The Rt Revd Gavin Collins, Bishop of Dorchester, answering your questions during our panel discussion

Lucy Jaffé, Why me?'s Director, sharing the story of Why me?'s inception and answering your questions in our panel discussion

Use the link below to visit our website's events page and purchase a ticket for £10, or scan the QR code why-me.org/forums-events-and-opportunities/events/

Sibford Village Hall, Acre Ditch,
Burdrop, Banbury OX15 5RN

why-me.org

@whymeUK

info@why-me.org